* The total area of the State according to the settlement just (1907) completed is 469,431 Acres i.e., 4,817 Acres less than that shown previously; for thereason that whereas the whole of the area of the Maksudi and Tājpora villages which are in joint possession of Rājgarh and Narsingharh was previously included in the area of this State now only half their area which equals 350 Acres is retained, and the area under dispute between villages in connection with boundary disputes which was counted twice over previously has now, that the disputes are settled, been counted only once. 1,609 Acres, the area of the village of Barwan previously included under Khālsā; has in the Settlement been transferred to Jāgīr. Barwan is a Jāgīr village under State supervision on account of its being heavily encumbered and the question of its redemption is under consideration by the Durbār.

† Of the 120 Jāgīr villages 79 are held in Jāgīr by Jāgīrdārs who pay Turkania or tribute to the State, 29 villages are in possession of Ranis, widows of the late Rājā Partāp Singh, and 12 villages are allotted rent free for the support of temples.

1	Thākūr Partābchand Motīchand ... .. He claims descent from Gunrājdhās, the founder of the family. Purshotamdās, the seventh descendant, obtained the sanad of mandloiship from Shāhjahān, Emperor of Delhi. This shows that the family is older than the State. He also possesses one istimrār village Magajpura. Besides, he possesses a number of pieces in the pargana measuring 3,000 bighas with an annual income of Rs 4,721. He pays every third year Rs. 1,560 by way of peshkashi. He also pays annually to the Darbār Rs. 121 as tānka for the istimrār village held by him. He is 15th in descent from Gunrājdhās.	Naigām Kāyastha of Randive Sept.
2	Thākūr Kishanlāl Parmānand ... .. He is descendant of Parashrām, the founder of the family, who obtained the sanad of kānungoship from Shāhjahān. The estate consists of four villages, viz., Kalsada (senior), Shāhpura, Balka and Amkheda; the first is inām and the remaining three as istimrār. He shares dāmi, bhet and other hags with the Mandloi in proportion of Rs. 2 (out of 5) per cent. He pays to the Darbār Rs. 46 as tānka for the istimrār villages.	Naigām Kāyastha.
3	Bihārīlāl Bisanlāl ... .. The family traces its establishment in Mālwa to the Muhammadan period. The original founder of the family was Nandlāl who founded a village in his inām land.	Naigām Kāyastha.
4	Qāzī Muhammad Qudrat-ul-lāh ... .. He holds the village as inām for qāzat duties of Dhār town. He claims descent from Abdul Fateh, the founder of the family, who is said to have obtained the sanad of qāzat from Shāh Alam, Emperor of Delhi. He also possesses sanads from the Marāthā rulers. He enjoys the usual dues to which a Qāzī is entitled.	Muhammadan of the Shaikh Sect.
5	Pūrna Shankar Bhat, Vishwanāth Bhat and Nārāyan Bhat are the three Mālwi upādhyas of the chief and the worshippers of the Kālīka, the family goddess of the Ponwārs. They represent the three collateral ancestors, Lāl Bhat, Gulāl Bhat and Khushāl Bhat who, it is said, primarily obtained from Yashwant Rao I the grant of the village Matlabpura as dharmādāya for worshipping the goddess and a permission to officiate as local priests or upādhyas to the chief's family. Pūrna Shankar is aged 50 years. He is a good artist and a fine self-made painter. The income of the village is equally divided between the aforesaid three co-sharers.	Bāvishe Brāhmans of Mādhyandini Shākhā of the Yajurveda.

The duty of the latter office consists in affixing the State seal to the important papers. The founder of the family Rām Rao Kāshi was, for some time, the minister of Anand Rao II, and shared the vicissitudes of fortune with Rānī Mainābai at the time of Murār Rao's rebellion. Rām Rao succeeded his father Mārtand Rao by adoption in 1890	Shukla Yajurvedī Brāhman.
7	Khande Rao Malhār Puānik ... .. The estate is divided into three parts which are held by the descendants of the three sons of the grantee. His great-grandfather Sadāshiv Buwa Puānik, who acquired this estate, was a learned Pandit. He was deputed by Rānī Mainābai to Baroda to secure help to check the rebellion of Murār Rao. For his valuable services he was granted the inām.	Do.
8	Jairāmgīr Buwa ... .. He holds the village as charitable grant. The grant was originally given to Udaigīr Buwa in 1813 by Mainābai for the maintenance of a sadāwarta for the Narmadāvēāsīs (holy persons living on the Narmadā) at Maheshwar.	Gusāin.
9	Nilkanth Rao Anand Rao Sāthe ... .. He is the adopted son of Anand Rao and the fourth descendant of Satwājī Rao, the father of the famous Mainābai Ponwār of Dhār. Satwājī lived at Baroda being related to Govind Rao Gaikwār through his wife Saibai who was the sister of Gahinābai, the wife of the Gaikwār. But the family is said to have settled at Dhār on the marriage of Mainābai with Anand Rao II. Nilkanth Rao succeeded to the estate by adoption after the death of Anand Rao Sāthe in 1896. He is receiving his education in the local High School. The estate is encumbered with debt.	High caste Marāthā of the Jādhav Clan.

10	Nārāyan Rao Sāthe ... Represents another branch of Satwāji's family through his second son Nilkanth Rao. His grandfather Kushāba helped Rānī Mainābai in putting down an insurrection but was killed while fighting with the Holkar's forces under Rāmdin Dikshit. He succeeded his adoptive father Raoji. He enjoys also a cash allowance of Rs. 276 a year.	High caste Marāthā of Jadhav Clan.
11	Govind Rao Bāba Sāheb Mānkar ... He traces his descent from Khandūji, a brave Marāthā of the Deccan. He is the sixth in descent from Khandūji. He was adopted by Rām Rao Mānkar, the maternal uncle of Anand Rao III of Dhār. He succeeded to the estate in 1869.	Marāthā.
12	Rāmchandra Rao alias Nāna Sāheb Sinda ... He was formerly the Palace officer. He belongs to the solar race and bears the title of Ravi Rao . His grandfather's younger brother Laxman Rao alias Nāna Sāheb was adopted by Rānī Mainābai, as he was a son of her elder sister Thakubai and he was named Rāmchandra Rao Ponwār. In consequence of this event a jāgir in perpetuity was bestowed upon Mahipat Rao, the father of Rāmchandra Rao of Dhār. Nāna Sāheb succeeded his father in 1889.	High caste Marāthā.
13	Rāmchandra Rao Elwande ... His great ancestor Satwāji was married to the eldest sister of Mainābai Sāheba, wife of Anand Rao II. He was a killedār at Māndu. He was killed while fighting with the rebels whom Murār Rao had incited to rise against the State. So his son was granted the village in Dhār pargana . The estate is under debt. Rāmchandra Rao is 22 years old and has lately passed the F. A. Examination from the Central Hindu College at Benares.	High caste Marāthā and a Kshatriya by Clan.
14	Moti Singh Zamindār ... He claims descent from Devī Singh, original grantee, upon whom the zamindārship of Nimanpur pargana was conferred by Rāmchandra Rao Ponwār in 1820. The family seems to have existed in the pargana prior to the advent of the Ponwārs in Mālwā.	Korku.

15	Rāmchandra Rao and Krishna Rao Deo ... They are the grandsons of Trimbak Bhat, the original grantee, who accompanied Sakhārām Chimmāji when he came from Baroda at the invitation of Mainābai to help her in suppressing Murār Rao's rebellion. The revenue is shared equally between the two brothers.	Rigvedi Mahārāshtra Brāhman.
16	Satya Sāheb Ponwār of Malthan ... Yashwant Rao alias Satya Sāheb is the eldest son of Sambhāji Rao alias Aba Sāheb and half-brother of His Highness Udāji Rao, the Rājā of Dhār. He is the fifth in descent from the well-known Udāji Rao Ponwār who was a prominent figure in the military campaigns of Bāji Rao I. His grandfather Yashwant Rao alias Bhau Sāheb was an astute statesman who rendered valuable services to the Dhār State in the time of his son Yashwant Rao II, Rājā of Dhār, who requited him generously. Bhau Sāheb had three wives, Jamnābai, Anandibai and Yamnābai or Tai Sāheba. The first was the mother of Malhār Rao who was adopted in the Dhār family under the name of Yashwant Rao. The second was the mother of Anirudha Rao whom Yashwant Rao II of Dhār adopted under the name of Anand Rao III (the late Mahārājā). The third who is living had a son Sambhāji Rao alias Aba Sāheb. Aba Sāheb had five wives. The first had two daughters and a son named Seturām; the second had a son named Satya Sāheb; the third had also left a son by name Bhāgoji Rao who by adoption is the present ruler of Dhār; while the fourth and fifth are childless. Satya Sāheb has now reached the age of majority and has, therefore, been recognised as head of the family. The estate being heavily encumbered has been taken under the supervision of the Darbār.	Marāthā by Caste and a Ponwār by Clan.
17	Raghunāth Rangnāth Buwa alias Guru Mahārāj ... He is residing at Paithan in the Nizām territory. Of these two villages, the first was bestowed upon his great grandfather Raghunāth Buwa by Yashwant Rao II in consideration of his being his guru or spiritual guide. The second was granted to Dhundirāj Bāba by Anad Rao III for the same reason.	Shukla Yajurvedi Brāhman.

18	Mārtand Rao Krishna Rao Kadam Bānde... ..          Besides the village, he enjoys from the State a personal annual allowance of Rs. 1,860. From Dewās, J. B., he receives Rs. 300 and from Malthan Rs. 200. The reason of these munificent grants is that his grandfather Mārtand Rao was married to Khāsibai, the sister of Yashwant Rao II, on the Malthan side. He was born in 1888 and being a nephew of Krishna Rao he succeeded him by adoption in 1896. He has one brother also. These Kadam Bāndes claim to be descendants of Kanthāji Kadam Bānde, the well-known brave Sardār with Bāji Rao I. Balwant Rao is the founder of the family at Dhār. Mārtand Rao's estate is heavily encumbered with debt.	High caste Marāthā.
19	Vināyak Raghunāth Gune ... ..          Adopted son of Rāgho Nārāyan, who was the Dīwān of Dhār from 1862-67. Rāgho Nārāyan, for his good services in Mutiny, was rewarded by the late Anand Rao Ponwār with the inām of the aforesaid villages. Vināyak Rao has passed the Entrance Examination of the Calcutta University. For some time he was a Joint Inām Commissioner and a Revenue Secretary in the early years of the British supervision. Bālāji Janārdan, the principal ancestor, was a Mutālik to Mantri, one of the eight ministers of Chhatrapati Shāhu Mahāāj.	Rigvedi Karādha Brāhman.
20	Ganesh Gangādhār Nādkar ... ..          The original grantees was Balwant Bāpuji, grandfather of Ganpat Rao, who was given the inām for his long and faithful services. Ganpat Rao succeeded in 1886.	Chāndraseniya Kāyas- tha Prabhu.
21	Govind Rao Vishwās Rao ... ..          A portion of the inām village worth Rs. 1,200 has been assigned as an endowment to the temple of Rām which he has built. In the critical times of the Mutiny he served the State very ably and faithfully being present with the British forces in aiding them every way in driving away Makrānis from the Dhār fort. When Sir Robert Hamilton went to Jhānsi he was in camp with him as Dhār Vakil. As Vakil he rendered valuable services in securing the restoration of the State. In recognition of these faithful services the aforesaid village was granted to him in 1864 by Anand Rao III. For some years he was a member of the State Council. Up to 1901 he served as a Palace officer.	Shukla Yajurvedi Mahārāshtra Brāhman.

The first year of its settlement could not be known. Therefore the amount of Rs. 30,766 is for the last year of that old system. In 1864 the Hal-bandī by the plough system was introduced in the state. It remains unchanged till now, the amount of Rs. 29,575, is, therefore, for the first year of the Hal-bandī system.
